“ I last saw Larry when I was living in Atlanta GA 20 + years after high school. It was such a pleasure to see him and talk about old times and careers . Since then I relocated to Florida and reconnected with him last month. I was sad to hear that he was down and planned to visit him last week. I was hurt to find out that he had passed. He will always be remembered as a dear friend and kind soul. Rest in Peace Larry.

“ I will miss Larry a lot, our hour talks about life, family and plain old gossip. He never forgot birthdays or holidays. He'd come by to check on my mom and they'd laugh/talk for hours. Larry loved to eat and mama was only to eat. He'd bring his mom to the house and the 3 of them would have a ball. I met him in 1979 through my brother Lewis and we all clicked like family. Which we were because we were New Yorkers. I love you Larry, you are already missed. I love you bro. Now you, your mom, my mom, Gwen and now Lewis can all "hang out" again. RIHP
