“ David and Susie, I am so sorry to just hear of Leah's passing. We were next door neighbors on Wexford Drive for many years, and travelled for a while in parallel as we grew up: the "top of the street Wexford kids", Rock Creek Palisades, Newport Jr High, Einstein High School in a very different, and now seemingly, ideal and perfect time and place. We all diverged as we went our separate ways after graduation, unfortunately. She and I reconnected in the early 2000's via email, but unfortunately lost touch some time after. Seeing all the tributes and video reminded me of what a great and loved person she was. May she rest in peace.

“ I’m so sorry that the Wiley Family has lost a very special person In Leah. First met Ms. Leah in Bemis Hall on the grounds of Hampton Institute late 1977. Leah was a classmate in the architecture program. Always smiling and had something going. She like a sister to me and I love her for her support during those years. May God’s arms hold her soul and comfort her family and friends.

While Leah was working with RL Brown Architects she participated in an interview to design one of our projects at Emory. A co-worker was impressed with her and suggested she might be a candidate for one of my vacant project manager positions. I called her and introduced myself and told her I was looking for good people for my team. I invited her to meet us at Melton's App & Tap for a Happy Hour Interview discussion. She said for her it was like going on a blind date! She found us on the back patio where 6 of us had a great introductory conversation with her and another candidate along with pitchers of beer, nachos and wings. Soon after she became an invaluable member of our team!

“ I enjoyed working with you and enjoyed the times we shared together after work. Our little group (you know who I'm talking about) would just hang out somewhere laughing, talking and social drinking. It almost never failed that I would learn something from you before we departed that evening. I will miss that. RIP

“ Leah is my beloved cousin who was full of life and laughter! She often shared her architectural design ideas with me when we get together and about certain projects she had as well as the joy she found when she began to operate independently. Leah was creative, curious and cute as a button! I always enjoyed her company and just being in her presence... she was easy to be with. Leah is gone from this world too soon but God has her now in all of her boldness. He knows best...I will miss you Leah and all that God made you to be! Your Loving Cousin, Andrea
