“ You have my deepest condolences. May the love of family, friends, and Almighty God comfort you during your time of grief and afterward. (Ps. 83:18; Isa. 41:10) If you seek God, you will find Him because “He is not far off from each one of us”. (Acts 17:27)

“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

Mom, I'm still trying to cope with your not being here. Life is so empty without you. Love you so much. When will the hole in my heart be mended? Wish you were here, never felt so much pain. I know GOD has not forgotten me. He knows my hurt, so with that being said, I will be OK one day. Just have not gotten there yet. MISS YOU MOM! My best friend in all the world. Mary

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to you all. Continue to "Draw close to God (in prayer) and He will draw close to you." ~James 4:8. He is aware of your sorrow and he promises a future when "Your dead will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in that promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.
