“ To the family of Mrs. Lenora Mulongo: I am so sorry to read about the death of your loved one. No matter who we are, death is painful. May you find comfort in the God of all Comfort during this difficult time. It's obvious that Mrs. Mulongo was loved by many and will be missed. God promises a time when we can spend time with our loved ones and not have to worry about death because the last enemy death will be brought to nothing. (1 Corinthians 15:26) Jesus speaks of a loving provision from our Heavenly Father, the resurrection hope, for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. He says: I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25) I hope you find these scriptural thoughts to be uplifting.
