“ My deepest condolences to the family of Leo Rogers. We were friends for many years. It’s sad that I did not get to see him prior to his home going due to COVID-19 restrictions. But, I’m glad he lived to receive the last desire of his heart. Though short lived, it still demonstrated the faithfulness of God! May he Rest In Peace! 🙏❤️

Leo was more like an uncle. He was a great listener, excellent motivator and prayer warrior and a genuine person that believed in prayer and the power of the Most High. I appreciate all your encouragement my whole life and all the heartfelt talks and laughs. Rest well Uncle Levee.

“ I extend to Akilah and all of Leo's family my deepest sympathy and prayers during this difficult time. Leo loved the Lord, all of you and all of his friends and will be remembered always. I believe that he is now with the Lord, his parents and other family, classmates, friends including my sister, Freeda Williams, Smith Hudson, Barbara McCoy, Bernise and others. They and others of us, including Beverly Taylor, Tommie Macon, Floyd Love, sisters, Norvell and Joann Williams, Mary Jo Hudson and others met him and Phyllis during the seventies and remained friends over the years. Some were neighbors, too. He was always very quiet, considerate of others and just enjoyed being with us on whatever the occasion was and we enjoyed being with him. Just to hear Leo's soft voice, him laugh and see his smile was always a joy. I thank the Lord that he loved unconditionally and was given a long life, that He strengthened him through all of his medical circumstances of life and made a way, and was with him when He called him to his heavenly home. I thank you all for taking care of him and sharing him with us. Leo will always be in our hearts and memories. MAY THE LORD CONTINUE TO BLESS, COMFORT, STRENGTHEN AND KEEP ALL OF YOU! THE LORD WILL SEE YOU THROUGH, TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON AND THANK YOU FOR HONORING, LOVING AND SACRIFICING FOR YOUR FATHER.
