“John 14 :2-3 In my Father’s house there are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself : that where I am, there ye may be also.” We will miss our cousin Greg, with that beautiful smile and such a humble spirit. To our cousins, we will be there in spirit with you today. We are sending comfort from the scriptures, prayers and hugs from Denver, Colorado. Much love from Brian, Paula and Djuan.

“ Years ago, I met a young man who impressed me in so many ways. As a husband, father, "little" brother, son, grandson, cousin, football/basketball coach, community advocate, mentor, leader, and friend. His exceptional performance in each of these roles earned the nickname Greg Star!

A man of few words but his inviting smile and laugh made an impression that he was a great listener and a trusting friend. We had many conversations and his wisdom show he was raised and mentored well.

GregStar loved his family. He had an especially close relationship with his older sister. The one word used to describe their closeness is "WOW!"

I already miss GregStar and the heartache that I feel is unbearable. But God!!

My prayers and condolences to the Barber family. My heart aches for each of you: Mr & Mrs. Barber, Shetonjela, Demetrin, Aleya, Zoie, Aaron, Grandma Barber, and all of his relatives and friends.

DeKalb Country has lost a shining star! Mr and Mrs Barber thank you for raising and giving the world a gift named Leon Gregory Barber.

Rest In Peace, Lt. Leon Gregory Barber aka GregStar.

To the Barber's
EARTH HAT NO SORROW THAT HEAVEN CANNOT HEAL!"

“ Leon was a great man. I'll look back fondly on working with him over the years. He always had an open ear to any problems and truly cared. I will miss his sense of humor and ability to add levity to a serious situation. He loved talking about his family and we used to share stories when we would catch up. I pray for Barber and his family and will truly miss him.
