“ Rhonda, Leroy made our day when he was able to workout at with us at the DeKalb Medical Wellness Center. We share your grief, but in our mind's eye will continue to see Leroy as the happy, cheerful and outgoing man that he was even as he struggled with health issues. We have special memories of you and Leroy displaying the love and caring y'all had for each other. May God bless you, your extended family and friends as we grieve the passing of Leroy. Sending you Love and Prayers; Bob Thomas and Tom Adams

“ Leroy Slade, Buckeye as we got to know him at Clark College, was a gifted and talented student. Many may not know that he was fluent in the French language. He even won an international trip abroad to explore further study. After returning to campus you could tell from this experience that sailing by boat to Europe had been a singular event in his life.
