“ Lesia,
I think back on when I last saw you in 2023. You wore your usual bright smile and soft chuckle with a whispered voice. You shared with me how you had an experience where you were with God as He took you around a tree and you saw the most beautiful flowers you have ever seen. You shared that you asked God to return to spend time with your daughter and soon after that you were released from the hospital as God granted you your desire. So, may you continue to embrace the joy that you did before in heavenly places. You already know how much love was shared as first cousins from early childhood forward and it will continue on through eternity. We must live a life so that we too may be ready. Thank you for sharing all that you did.
Love, love, love. Yes, I will be here for Tammie. ❤️🙏
