“ To the entire family and friend of L C, our deepest heartfelt sympathy go out to you. You will be constantly in our thoughts and prayers, it's a difficult thing to lose a loved one and sometimes hard to get over. But God encourage us to remember that He is still in control, and that Him plans work... even when we can't understand them. L C will always live on in our hearts for the caring and considerate person he was knowing that he sits at the Lord's table now eternally.
