“ Dear Haskins Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Haskins. I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. God empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth; giving us evidence of what He will do in the future. Continue to “Draw close to God and He will draw close to you.” ~James 4:8

“ My heart was and still is heavy to hear this news. I was given the privilege of meeting Tee about 12/13 years ago when we both began to share the coming of our granddaughter. I truly can say we shared a lot more than our grandchildren. She will surely be missed by all. I send my deepest condolences to the Haskins family during this most difficult time. You all will continue to be in my prayers.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Haskins,

Your loved one will never have to face the last enemy, death, ever again. In the meantime, his acts of faith live on until he stands up alive and whole in the Paradise.

“He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”Revelation 21:4
