“ What I remember most about my uncle Von, as we affectionately called him, was his fun-loving nature. He loved laughing and dancing as you can see in this picture at my wedding. He was a sharp dresser and always presented himself well. He loved class, style and good quality things. After building our home, he stopped by for a visit to see it. He was so proud of his niece and nephew as he toured our home. That's another thing about him, he stayed connected to his family.

When I was little he would always come and visit us all the time. To a little kid, he seemed as tall as a tree. He would pick us up and throw us up in the air and we would squeal and scream. He also got a kick out of pinching our cheeks after making us smile. He would not only pinch one but both at the same time. 🤗🤗🤗🤗

I will miss him greatly. He was a very appreciative and kind man and was always happy when we would call to check on him. May he rest in eternal peace and he will always hold a special place in our hearts.

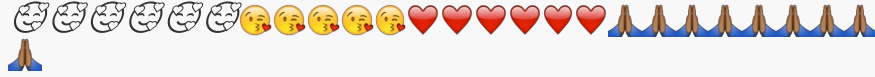

We love you Uncle Von!!!! 🥰🤗😍😇🥰❤❤❤❤🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ I just wanted to share that I have known the Johnson’s family since the middle year of 1980. Ever since I have met them, Mr. Johnson has always been a kind & respectful & hardworking family man. I remember him stepping up & saving me from a situation I walked into. He did not hesitate for one second & for that I have always appreciated him. Rest Easy Mr. Johnson . You may be gone from earth but you will NEVER BE FORGOTTEN

“ Though I did not know Mr. Johnson personally, I feel like I know him through his daughter, Jacquie, who so lovingly and faithfully cared for him. His spirit of fun, love, joy, sweetness, gratefulness lives on in her. I know his passing is a great loss to his family and friends. May they find comfort in each other and through their faith.

“ A measure of a man is how he treats his family and others around him. I had the privilege of being in Mr. Johnson presence witnessing the love and care he had for his family and extended towards others . He was man of few words but that smile, witty jokes and his kind words and gestures was all that was needed to feel welcomed. Rest well Mr Johnson ❤️🙏
To the Johnson family you know I love you all. ❤️🙏 There are no sorrows on earth that heaven can't heal.
