“ My condolences to the Family of Captain Lewis G. Abney - Vietnam 1966-67

My name is Joe Napp and I was a 1-LT in 2nd Civil Affairs Company and I first met Captain Abney then with the 41st CA Company then at Lai Khe with the 1st Infantry Division.

We met several times during our tour. I remember a Very Good and Decent Person. Last memory, he was playing a Game of Bridge and with a Can of Beer or Soda of the day. Sixty years have passed and the details fade.

I have only good and positive memories. He was Well Respected back then, sadly we lose a Brother-in-Arms each day now.

Rest in Peace with Our Lord in Heaven.

*Joe Napp, Former Member of 2nd Civil Affairs Company.

“ I met Mr Lewis many years ago through my aunt Belinda. My family was on a cruise with them. This man didn't know me yet he was so kind and generous! I saw him again back in 2020 for another cruise and of course he was just as kind and humble. I had great conversations with him, Mr Lewis had some great stories to tell. As I'm smiling now through the sadness in my heart I know Mr Lewis will truly be missed. My condolences to his family and of course to his loving wife my aunt Belinda. I'm so sorry for your loss auntie I know you loved Mr Lewis to your soul. Whenever I saw you Mr Lewis was always by your side. I will miss seeing that. Very sad...
SIP Mr Lewis 🕊️🙏💙

“ As I think about this, I have so many great memories with my grandpa. He has taught me many things. He helped revealed to me an early love for sports and traveling the world and spreading love the one memory that stands out to me the most is when me him and Grandma went on a cruise together and I played a prank on him. Of course you know me being I think 12 or 13 or something I was still testing him out. I was in my devious state, so my genius idea was to take my socks that I've been wearing all day and put it under his pillow, and when he wakes up, I was gonna tell him he slept on a stinky sock and laugh at him and that is what exactly happened. I was clowning him and going and going on saying that he slept on my dirty socks and then you know what he did? He turned around and flipped the prank back on me with his socks on me! I didn't think he had it in him to get me back with my own medicine. It was times like these that helped me develop my sense of humor forever. I love you Grandpa. Thank you for being you and showing me how to be determined, laugh, and love.

“ My heartfelt condolences to my friend Belinda and her entire family. Life brings tears, smiles, and memories. The tears dry, the smiles fade but the memories last forever. May God strengthen Belinda in this difficult time and know that God will never leave nor forsake you. May his peace cover you with hugs and comfort today, tomorrow and forever. Molly and Anthony!!
