“ Our prayers and love are with you, Lila's family, and all the loving hearts that are and shall serve you in healing and recovery as you say goodbye to Lila's physical presence. Love is the most powerful reminder that the grave nor anything of this world can not separate us from God's love. May you see Lila in the light of God's love and your hearts rejoice and be made glad in it. God's blessings upon you family and friends. Wendell T. And the Castlewood Christian Ministries family

“ There is no single day that goes by to where I don't miss, love or think about you, I miss our past talks EVERY day on my way home from work at 3pm and before bedtime. You have raised and guided me and Alex to be strong and independent adults. I might not have liked it at the time but now I see why you did it. You were preparing us to live without you. My mind still talks to you daily. I find my self often dialing your number out of habit. Knowing that you are no longer in pain and watching over us from above puts my mind at ease. I love you momma and will always cherish each and ever moment spent with you. Rest in heaven, Ma. Until we see each other again.
