“ The love of our parents is our foundation, along with God to loving one another. The prayers and teaching are among the memories we keep close to our hearts, for what they've sacrificed for our success in life. And we love and thank them for it all. God bless the family and may your mother rest in peace.

“ Dear Family,

In your loss, caring thoughts are with you at this difficult time. I pray you find comfort from our Savior, Jesus Christ. Ms. Lillian was one sharp lady. We had so many enjoyable conversations back in the day. I will cherish the memories.
