A message to my Girl!
until we meet again...

Thank you for being the best mother in the world!!

As my mother and my girl, you taught me so many things, never let me slack on becoming the person you knew I was capable of being, always insisted I be a lady, and settling was not an option. Thank you for your wisdom, knowledge, and for being my best friend. Mother, as I get older, I will continue to appreciate your lessons so very much!!!!

God of Loving Devotion, please show your compassion to me as I grieve my mother's death. I thank you for her life and ask that you comfort me in my distress. My heart is broken, and my soul is crushed at this time. The Bible says that you are near to the broken hearted and close to those crushed in spirit. Please God continue to draw near to me with your love.

Dear God, I so appreciate the support system you left me. My mother cherished and loved deeply her Family and Friends. Loved beyond measure and gratitude to each of our Family and Friends. May you always cherish your memories of Mother knowing she is now your heavenly Angel.

With Love Always,
Daughter-Nicole Souder

“ Lillian Young RN and I were co-workers and friends at the Atlanta Key Road Correctional Facility and the Atlanta City Detention Facility for many years. Lillian was inspirational, smart, energetic, compassionate, entertaining, thoughtful and yes, we observed the first "Freaknik" in Atlanta Georgia.

May God thru his Son bless you Nicole, Barbara and Joe. Lillian was a wonderful classmate and friend who inspired me. She stood by me during the death(gun violence) of my only son. She was always ready with kind words and encouragement and prayer. I still love you my friend and I am praying for your soul.

“ A beautiful princess called home to her Heavenly Father's kingdom. My condolences to all family members and relatives. I have known her and her family all of my life. They exhibited Christian values throughout the community of Dublin, Georgia. Each members contribution resulted in the City of Dublin growing educationally, spiritually and economically. May God add strength to the families during their period of grief and forever bless and keep them.
