“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family and friends give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth.1:3,4)

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural comfort to you all. God made a loving provision to restore life to dead ones when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in the resurrection when he said..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25)

“ My condolences to your family. May you draw comfort from the words of Job in the Bible who said, "If a man dies, can he live again?" God assured him that the answer is yes (Job 14:14,15). May you find strength in this promise from God that you can see your loved one again in the future.
