“ Ms. Lillie adopted us as her family shortly after moving to Phoenix, AZ in the early 80s. We attended the same church and we were also new to Phoenix with no family in the area. We needed a mother figure as a young couple with a young child and she needed to nurture. It was a fit from heaven. We have been family since that day. We last talked with Ms. Lillie several months ago and to our delight she was still Ms. Lillie! Ms. Lillie touched so many in the way she touched our family and the family be comforted knowing that Ms. Lillie will never die, but she was tired and is now at rest and at peace. May the peace and love of God be with us all.
