“ We love and miss you Aunt Pat! Your memories will forever be etched in our thoughts, prayers, but most of all our hearts. All the trips to Dothan and Home Depot to the house in Alabama on Stringer Street! Thanks for sharing some of your crafting knowledge with me, I'll never forget my bday trip to ATL and we stayed up late to make my quilt, girl.....we are in it to win it.....lol! You were definitely a Super Woman!!! May you RIH----

This is my father's baby sister...she will be greatly missed. He talked about Lilly Ann a lot as we all were growing up. He truly enjoyed her visits and their talks. He and my mom, Aunt Carrie and her all sitting on the porch laughing. Those are memories that I cherish. My father, Harold will not be attending due to health issues, but he will attend in true LOVE, SPIRIT and concern for the family. Much love and know that the JACKSON FAMILY loves you all. Just remember she now rests in perfect care with the Lord 🙏
