“ Linda Taylor King and I have been best friends all our lives. We've had so many loving memories from elementary, middle school, high school, church, weddings, children and the list goes on. We could talk about in and everything. As our lives spanned more than 60 years together, we were linked by the heart. She had a beautiful smile, a compassionate and giving spirit and an infectious laugh. When you heard it, you would know that it was her. Even though I don't want to let her go, I know she is in paradise with our Sherrie and our Heavenly Father. Rest on my angel and be the "Lily in Valley" of God's paradise. Ebony you have done an awesome job during such a difficult time. Your mother would be proud of you. I know I am. You are her legacy that she leaves behind as a beacon of the values she embodied within herself. May God continue to cover you in His grace and mercy. The family and I love to so much. Aunt Gwen & the Whitelaw Family ❤️❤️🙏🙏
