“ I can see her so clearly in a white flowing gown, her hands folded in prayer as she is surrounded by a glow if light with her beautiful smile as she walks through the pearly gates into the lord out stretched arms as he brings her home. I will never forget you my very dear friend and sister in Christ.

“ My sincere condolences to Linda's family and may God guide and comfort your days and years ahead. Linda was a lady of kindness with a genuine love for people. Her strength was her faith in God, and everyone could see this spiritual truth when meeting her. She will be remembered and thank God for the time shared at Emory University and beyond. Kay
