“ I will miss my loving cousin who loved FAMILY, FAMILY AND FAMILY once again. I had a conversation with Lin about the ending of 2018. I told her she and I have had such a blessed life having awesome parents who taught us about the love of family. Then I told her I love her so much. She told me she loved me as well always have. Another memory was I flew to Atlanta one year from California. The Hills had their family reunion at Red Top Mountain. I rented a car driving to Red Top Mountain but I got a little turned around. Lin called me on my cell and asked where am I. I told her I was with Santa's reindeers because I saw them crossing the road in front of me. Anyway she directed me to the location where they all were and told me that they would be the black folks standing by the sign waving. When I arrived there was all my family from Detroit and Atlanta. I was on cloud nine and I couldn't stop laughing. I felt so very very loved. I thank God for the time and the memories I have shared with my loving cousin. Rosalyn Serano (California)
