“ You were always there to give a helping hand to whomever needed it without a second thought. That was just you. When i was in the hospital and when my father passed you were always calling to check on me. You taught me things that helped my work day go a little smoother. You would fuss and hug in the same breath..... I walk into work now and i keep looking at the back door waiting for you to come thru and say "Good morning babydoll". I miss you. I do.

The Day you left us the clouds rolled away in the sky.....God said come on home with me...take your place on high. They will hurt for a minute and ask questions why but you lived your life so you could sit by my side. They will remember the good times and some of the bad but most of all they will remember the love you ALWAYS had.

Rest in heaven my friend.

“ We laugh together ... we worked Side by Side for so many hours , sometimes long hours ... you fed me lunch as if I was your kid... you protected me from false accusations...you made sure that I got paid ... you appreciated my knowledge on making some of your days a little easier... when I was thirsty you made sure I had something to drink... when I had family issues you worried about me ... when you went shopping and saw tools that you and I could use ... you got me and you the tools... I'll never know a loyal hard working sister like you ever again ... God called you home and it's hurting me like hell right now... so I'm saying good bye through these words ... you know who you are
😭😭😭... you will be missed so much my Friend .. my Co- worker ... my Big Sister.. my acting like mother at times ... God has you now ... you're in the best ever hands now ... Rest on!! Rest on!!
😭😭😭 and My Sincere Condolences to your Family.... Reggie Wilson
