

Linda Diann Walker

August 14, 1946 - January 17, 2026

Linda Diann Walker was born in Brookhaven, Mississippi on August 14, 1946, to Lula Ann Farmer and Charles Wesley Walker. Most of her life was spent under the guiding hand and nurturing of her mother, the late Lula Ann Farmer.

She grew up in Brookhaven, Mississippi, Phenix City, Alabama, and Columbus, Georgia. As a youth, she attended Mother Mary Mission Catholic Church and School. She would spend time with relatives learning about food and cooking. There was always enough food, and it was at the table where family came together and laughed, forming a strong bond and making wonderful memories. It is no wonder she fell in love with cooking. She graduated from Carver High School in Columbus, Georgia on June 5, 1964. She worked for AT&T for 35 years (1969-2004).

Linda decided to pursue her lifelong dream of becoming a chef. She loved cooking and the happiness experienced when eating a great meal. She loved many different foods, especially spicy food and fish. On November 4, 2016, at age 70, she graduated from Le Cordon Bleu College of Culinary Arts with an Associate of Occupational Science in Le Cordon Bleu Culinary Arts.

Linda built community wherever she spent a good amount of time. She had a strong faith in God which empowered her to give to others even while she herself was in need. Due to the experiences of her life, she had strong convictions about God's love and as much as humanly possible, loving others with the love of God. In this, she led by example, teaching her daughter, who in turn taught her children, 1 Corinthians 13: 7- 8a "it always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. ⁸Love never fails." (NIV)

On Saturday, January 17, 2026, Almighty God called His faithful servant home to eternal rest and peace.
