Mrs. Lynda Willis was a very nice woman. I met her and her family when we were at Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church in Saginaw Mi. She was a great mom and grandmother. Nicolle be strong for you and your children. Remember all of the good times and what she taught you all. May God be your comforter through this difficult time . Love you

So saddened to hear of your moms passing Nicole. Keeping you and your family uplifted in prayer. I worked with Linda in Saginaw at the Health Systems agency where she was my supervisor. She also gave me a baby shower at her house when my first baby was born. I have found memories of her bright smile and bubbly personality.

She will certainly be missed.

I relocated to Stone Mountain, GA just 4 months ago. I wish I had known Linda was living so close to me I certainly would have loved to have connected with her again. Nicole you , your children and your aunts

hold on to her precious memories and keep them close to your heart so she can live through you. 💖
