“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah's resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future. Visit us at www.jw.org for more spiritual comfort.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Minister Lisa Calhoun. Although I didn't know her personally, in reading some of the words of tributes to her, you can see what a loving and dedicated person she was. I truly hope in the days ahead, besides the memories you have, that you will also gain comfort from the words of our Heavenly Father. He is aware of your pain and is here to comfort you (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He also hold out wonderful promises concerning our deceased ones at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To be assured by our Creator, Jehovah, that we will be able to see and welcome back our departed ones, such as Lisa, can give you the needed strength to continue on. I pray that his words as well as the loving support of family and friends will sustain you during this difficult period.

“ I worked with Lisa at the Coca-Cola Company. I remember asking her why she was at corporate when she needed to be full time in ministry. She grinned that famous Lisa grin, Gettin' ready... She, like me, was in the preparation period. May God comfort each of you as you mourn Lisa's passing--she has now come face-to-face with our Savior. We've all been blessed to have known Lisa. Our paryers are with each of you during these trying hours. In Christ's Holy and lasting peace, Reverend Wayne Reed
