“ I met Lisa on our 6 am prayer call and she was always a joy to listen to. Each time she was called on to teach a lesson, she always ended with a song. That was so enjoyable to hear. Even during her illness she was upbeat and hopeful. She used to say “I’m not going to worry about anything but I’m going to pray about everything” and she did. She always spoke about her children and grandchildren and it was evident how much she loved them and how so very proud of them she was. Because of Lisa’s singing, Elder Gail named her Grand Master Flash and I used to call her Flash whenever I spoke to her or texted her. It was always uplifting to communicate with her. We’re all going to miss Lisa’s wit and humor and such a loving spirit. Father God welcome your faithful daughter home and let her rest in your arms. We all love you Lisa and we won’t ever forget you.
