“ Lisa knew everyone. A social butterfly connecting lives to one another, connecting spirits to Devine energy. Inspiring folks to move forward. What started out as an employee relationship turned into a life long friend/Support/chef/Sisterhood/unofficial godmother. She made a mark with elegant grace, class and sophisticated style. Lisa had a great sense of style often wearing pieces I would admire and often attempt to talk her into donating them to me. I have a few jewelry pieces I've collected from her over the years. In life you don't meet many people like Lisa. People who can embrace a perfect stranger and welcome them with open arms like Lisa. Her smile would light up the room. I will be forever grateful to have met her in my lifetime and thankful for the love, compassion and support she has given to me over the years. She was such a special lady.

I send my prayers and condolences to her beautiful daughters, precious grandchildren and all other family.

“ I am saddened even more that I could not be with all of you today. Words are only an attempt to express what is in my heart over the loss of my dear friend, Lisa Molly. Her death leaves such a void in the life of all of us who knew her and were blessed to be able to call her friend and sister.

Rest in peace sweet angel. Until we meet again.

This was a hard pill for me to swallow. I thought your fried cabbage could fix anything. You will be missed.
