

Lisa Ann Rivers

May 14, 1962 - January 19, 2024

We the family of Lisa Ann Burch Rivers are saddened, but comforted knowing our Queen Warrior is now resting peacefully in the arms of the Lord. Lisa was a phenomenal woman and a force with a beautiful smile, an infectious laugh and a true giver of unconditional love. She was a dedicated mother, nurturing grandmother, loving daughter and sister, a sweet friend and coworker. She often said she was just a girl from Decatur, but that girl embraced life and lived it to the fullest.

Lisa loved to travel and shop. Shopping with Lisa required stamina she was a true bargain hunter, she was a fashionista and her nails were always epic and eyelashes on point. She loved good food and a great party and everyone knew that you had to put in work when Lisa planned a party that always had a theme and was color coordinated.

That girl from Decatur had a quick wit and could throw shade, roasting you but with love. No one was immune from her sly remarks and all you could do was laugh along with her.

When Lisa along with most of us received the news of her diagnosis she told us without reservation...we cry today. Throughout her journey she would remind us not to take life for granted, to enjoy and live, she admonished us to love and help each, because we are all we got. Even on her bad days she thought of others, never herself and she always had that beautiful smile when she saw you.

Lisa lived, she laughed and she loved. She loved all of us with her heart and gave us all that she had with reservation.

So today, we her family say to our Queen Warrior...

Well done momma

Well done nana

Well done daughter

Well done sister

Well done sweet friend

God has welcome you home, take your rest, your job is done. Well Done!

“ In high school she was like a second mother to me and had no problem correcting me when I was wrong! But I always felt welcomed! She fed me, bought me things, allowed me to go places with them, and treated me like one of her own. Her laugh was infectious and her smile amazing. Rest peacefully Miss Lisa!
