“ To the family of Lizzie Mae Hall: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). To (Mama Pearson) and The Family: Sometimes your heart can lose its joy, and you wonder if you'll ever find it again.. Sometimes your spirit gets weak from the stress and strain of life, and your load seems too heavy to bear.. But at times like this, I want you to remember that the battle is not yours alone.. Hold on to your faith and hand your troubles to the Lord... He is willing and able to make everything alright. We Love You.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ I'm sorry that your dear loved one fell asleep in death. May you gain comfort and courage as you keep in mind: God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily to be found during distresses. ~Psalm 46:1. His Word assures us: The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. ~John 5:28,29.
