“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. I know that Mrs. Lizzie was loved by many and will be missed by many. But the bible tells us at John 5:28,29 that Jesus will resurrect all that are dead and he will do so by the power of Jehovah God. Isn't that nice to know there is a God who actually cares about you. Won't that be nice to see your dead loved ones again and know that you nor them will ever die again. We can be thankful to Jehovah God for that. The bible says at Titus 1:2 that God can not lie. So everything from the bible we can believe and everything that Jehovah God says we can believe. I hope what I said to you can be of help and I hope I brought you comfort and support and help. If you have any questions talk to the local Witness in Atlanta or visit the website www.watchtower.org to answer questions about the bible
