“ To the Mack Family and Friends, Though I know that this is a difficult time for you my hope is that when the time is right for it, you might allow yourself to be comforted by the hope found in God's inspired word the Bible. John 5:28,29 and Rev 21:3,4. These give hope of both a future resurrection and the complete elimination of death, pain and mourning to be accomplished under Jesus' Kingdom rule. (1Cor 15:24-26) We have this and much more to look forward to. “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Lois Mack. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To all her family

It is never easy to accept even if you know that it is coming. Remember that God is ever mindful of all our pains. We will all see her again !! You do have our sympathy. Be strong and great courage. God is faithful.

“ To the Family:

I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer condolences. May "the God of all comfort" grant you all peace as you look ahead to the fulfillment of His loving promises. God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. We know that God cares for us and our loved ones who are sleeping in death because "He sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1John 4:9. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Joshua 23:14
