

Lois Moore

December 19, 1937 - May 5, 2021

Lois Moore peacefully passed away at her home on May 5, 2021.

Lois Whitlock Moore was born December 19, 1937, in Decatur, Georgia, to Walter Whitlock Sr.

and Helen Rowe Salmon. Lois graduated from Hamilton High School in Avondale Estates in June 1956 and attended Clark Atlanta College from January 1956 to June 1958.

Lois was baptized at an early age at Mt. Zion Methodist Church. She later recommitted her life to the Lord and was baptized at Israel Baptist Church.

Lois was an active member of Free Chapel Church in Suwanee, Ga.

Lois has had an extensive career in retail merchandizing, medical services, and owner and operator of her own daycare business. She spent 22 years in the Gwinnett County school system, touching many hearts at Bethesda and Margaret Winn Holt Elementary.

Her interests included family, traveling, and reading. She also enjoyed acting and modeling and was always fashion-forward and stylish. Lois had a passion for cooking and baking. She always added her personal touch to any and every recipe.

Lois was a mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother known for her excellent wisdom. She was an original thinker and was mostly right. Lois was led by her extraordinary intuition, and ability to know and understand people. She was truly amazing in giving unfiltered advice when needed in any situation.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Mary Helen Whitlock, brother, Walter Whitlock Jr, former spouse, Robert Moore; survived by two daughters, Ylonda Moore, Cassandra Moore; sister, Joann Daniel; four grandchildren, Denna Cummings (Hanniel), Dion (Rocko) Williams (Nicole), Jonathan Starks, Ashley Starks; great-grandchildren: Autumn, Dion Jr, Tyson, Major Williams; Hanniel Jr., Asher, Luca Cummings; nieces: Angela Bryant (Dennis), Michele Daniel, and a host of great-nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
