“ My most memorable times was when Aunt Lola use to bring all the kids from Conn. to North Carolina to visit all family members. It was because of her and my grandma Anna that I knew all my cousins in Conn. I was always told that you can choose your friends but not family and there is nothing better than family. Aunt Lola went out her way to make sure that we understood that we are family no matter how many miles was between us and for that I will be so ever grateful. Rest in Peace Aunt Lola

Much love family
