

Mr. Lonnie Anderson

January 25, 1939 - June 2, 2024

Mr. Lonnie Anderson was born January 25, 1939, in Macon, Georgia, to the late Georgia A. and Henry M. Anderson.

Lonnie attended Ada J. Banks Elementary and continued schooling at Ballard Hudson Normal. At an early age, Lonnie understood the power of hard work. As a self-starter, with a deep sense of responsibility and determination, Lonnie taught himself various skills that built a lasting career that provided for his family. After over 35 years, he retired from Georgia Highway Express/SF Dugan. When Lonnie wasn't working, he loved listening and singing soulful music from back in the day. With his great voice, clever sense of humor and smooth dance moves, there was no room he couldn't light up.

Lonnie met the love of his life, Gladys Jackson, and married on December 16, 1961. From this union, five children were born. Their two sons, Alonza Anderson and Glenn Maurice Anderson and three daughters, Glenda Michelle Anderson-Leslie, Angela Yvette Anderson-Curtis and Patrice LaShawn Anderson-Bowles. In 1968, the family relocated to Warner Robins, Georgia, to a house that became home to not only them but their grandchildren. Lonnie and Gladys' home became the safe haven for their extended family gatherings, warm summer breaks and joyful holidays.

Struggling with multiple health issues, Lonnie transitioned Sunday evening,

June 2, 2024, at Brightmoor Hospice in Conyers, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his loving daughter Glenda Michelle Leslie, daughter-in law Yolanda Anderson, twin brother Lindsey, second brother George Henry, brother-in-law Marshall Ramsey, and sisters Bernice Louise, Mary Francis, and Barbara Juanita Grayer.

Lonnie, aka "Big Bruh," will be cherished and remembered by his wife Gladys Anderson, Alonza and Jannis Anderson, Glenn Anderson, Yvette and Ervin Curtis, LaShawn and Scott Bowles, Raymond Leslie, ten grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, sisters Betty Ramsey and Patricia Anderson, brother-in-law Jessie Grayer, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
