“ Gloria, words cannot express my heartfelt prayers for you and your family. I have watched Lo grow from a very young man to an adult. There was never a day at Parkside that he wasn't doing something to make us laugh. I can and remember that beautiful smile. Please know my family and I are here for you should you need anything. Continue to lean on God's strength and through your faith, He will lead you through this difficult time.

Love you,
Judy Berry-Harris & Family

Gloria, Savanna,
So VERY SORRY that I JUST HEARD of LO's passing. I didn't even know he was SICK. MY HEART IS ACHING for ALL of you, including daddy and lil brother. My fervent prayers are with you now and in ALL the difficult days ahead. My love for my "hall dance partner" will NEVER GO AWAY!!! 🙏🙏💕

“ Last year was Lorenzo's time having Thanksgiving dinner with our family. We enjoyed his jokes and laughter so much. He was like another one of our sons sitting at the dinner table. All the men and their sons sitting there laughing and eating was a memory for life. The thing that touched me the most was watching him and his dad fix these "mile high" plates of food like my husband and sons used to do and I told him, " you can't eat all that" and he replied, " oh yes I can mother McGee". And not only did he but had seconds. I knew at that moment he was part of our family. My sons took to Lorenzo as if we knew him for years. I know that is something he gets from his dad because he is family to us as well. They both have this personality that is so welcoming and compassionate to others that you can't help but to embrace them as one of yours. Lorenzo Jr. this mother of sons will miss you like losing another son. You will forever be in my heart. Now rest with the angels my other son. Missing you mother McGee.
