“ Lori was a dear friend for most of my life. We grew up together. She was such a true and honest person, and she was very pleasurable to be around. We always had such insightful conversations. Lori always set very high standards and was such an intelligent person. She excelled in academics (Washington University) and sports (cheerleading). I have been so blessed to have been a part of her life. Lori will really be missed.

“ Ms. Lori,

I wish these words had come sooner, but I trust that someday, somehow they will reach you.

It was an honor to have you as a big sister, for you were truly my eldest sister. From the moment we met you showed me care and kindness. You were always willing to help, allowing me to live with you temporarily, during a rough patch in my young life. You were a great listener and a great thinker. I loved your strong, direct, decisive personality. When I found myself floundering on projects or in life, you were able to give a reality check and help me to get things going again.

I learned a lot from watching you move through life. Though you valued your privacy, I was able to sneak peeks at things that brought me great joy and taught me valuable lessons.

I am so happy that my brother was able to find and spend his life with someone as special as you. My heart was filled with joy and awe to witness the miracle of Yah answering all of our prayers with the birth of the beautiful soul of our John Windell Crenshaw. It warmed my heart to see Tim show the love he had for his family. I regret that our plans to get on the road together, after your retirement, will not happen in this lifetime. But, I hope we will have nearby mansions in Yah's Kingdom. Until then my sister, I love you and will miss you immensely.

“ One of the best gifts I experienced at the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship was to join the Global Missions team on which Lori served. Wise, kind, efficient, dependable, and blunt when needed. She was an incredible colleague and friend who opened doors for countless others to pursue God's calling on their lives around the world. I benefited in so many ways from her friendship and insight. Rest in peace, Lori, and rise in power!

Tim, our prayers now are with you--may the Holy Spirit comfort you in this loss with the same love that sustains your mother even now.

“ Lori, you were a wonderful, kind and gifted colleague who never failed to brighten the days of all around you. You brought meaning, joy and guidance to many students in your care and important formation to those preparing to serve in distant lands. What a joy it was to work together with you for a few years. We thank God for you. May your light and wisdom live on in all that knew and loved you. Sam & Melody.

“ Lori,
You were the best godmother a little girl could ask for. Thank you for all the great childhood memories, my name, and the toys that no one else had. You are loved and you will be missed.
