“ My genuine condolences to the family of Ms. Louise Richardson. To lose a loved one in death is the most devastating event that can plague us in our lives. The pain and anguish we feel never truly goes away. Our Heavenly Father is aware of what we are feeling and is here to offer us comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). He holds out wonderful promises concerning our departed loved ones at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. To know that there is a better future awaiting those we have lost in death, where the issues, such as sickness and death that afflicts mankind today, will be things of the past. I hope this can give you the strength to endure the difficult days ahead. I am sorry for your loss.

“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Richardson: May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision (John 3:16) strengthen you all as you look ahead. God cares for your loved one..."He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Continue to "draw close to God and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8).
