Louise White Obituary

It is with deep Love and Heartfelt sorrow the passing of Louise White, who departed this life on April 23, 2025 in Snellville, Georgia, at the age of 94.

Born on June 19, 1930, in Hackensack, New Jersey, to the loving parents Leroy and Rhoda McClary. She was their only child Louise married Thomas Mack White Sr. which they had five kids together, Leroy Jerome White, Thomas Mack White Jr., Antoinette Elaine White, Phillip Anthony White and Gregory Elliott White.

She worked for New Jersey Bell Telephone Company as an operator and then became a supervisor from 1969 until her retirement in 1993. Her work ethic and leadership left a lasting impression on all who had the pleasure of working alongside her.

Louise was a great advocate for higher learning and educating the youth. She created a 529 College Plan for her Grandkids so that finances would not be the reason for not going to college so that you could further their education.

Louise was known for her warm heart and vibrant spirit. She found joy in cooking delicious meals for her loved ones. She's a proud author of the cook book "Honey Hush" Family Favorites.

Playing cards with family and friends, and making memorable trips to casinos.

Her presence brought comfort and Joy to everyone around her. Above all, she was the best mother anyone could ever have – A title she worn with pride and grace.

She was famous for when you say to her "I Love You" and her reply would always be "I Love You More".

When she said that, she meant that from the bottom of her heart.

She is lovingly survived by Thomas Mack White Jr., Antoinette Elaine Blount and Gregory Elliott White Sr., and nieces and nephews and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren and great, great grandchildren who will continue to carry her legacy forward.

She now joins in eternal rest with her beloved parents Leroy and Rhoda McClary, her sons Leroy Jerome White and Phillip Anthony White.

Louise will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
