The light has dimmed oh too soon, The light once bright shines no more, God blew a whisper, and it shined no more. The light flickered, and it's flame somehow Waived, but now I see the wick has frayed. You don't have to shine anymore; it's time to rest your weary soul. We understand now why it was dim and gray; you were letting us know that it was time to go. Now take your place where you'll forever be bright, sitting in God's wondrous light.- Kimberly Wise (Daughter)-----the family of the late Mrs. Louise Davenport Wise wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to our relatives and friends who helped to lighten our sorrow in so many ways. May

God continue to bless all of you! For every sunset, there's a sunrise In a land we cannot see. There's a place of love and endless dawns That's called eternity. In this land, there are no shadows And no candles are ever needed. For God provides the light.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ To the Wise Family and Friends; I know how difficult this time must be for you. May the light from God's word the bible be a guide and comfort through the darkness of your loss. When the time is right, please look up the following scriptures in your copy of the Bible—
John 5:28,29 gives hope of a future resurrection and Rev 21:3,4 of a day when there will be no more death, mourning or pain.. We can have faith in what the Bible says because our God, Jehovah (Psalm 83:18)who promised these things...cannot lie..(Hebrews 6:18.) Jesus at John 11:11 said to his disciples..Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep. This helps us to know that Mrs. Wise is sleeping as was Lazarus and not suffering (Ecclesiastes 9:5) My prayers are with you as God strengthens you in the days ahead.
