“ To the family,

I send my heartfelt sympathy to you all. Although no words can really help to ease the loss of your mother, just know that you are very close in my thoughts and prayers. I had the wonderful opportunity to meet Mother Harrell twice. I had an air of dignity about her. It was easy and comfortable to be in her presence and talk with her. I can only imagine that she has found herself to be in a place now where she is reaping what she sowed - in the presence of the One who brings ease and comfort to all. May you all receive the grace of God and the love of Jesus Christ to carry you through today, tomorrow and the times ahead. May you be blessed by beautiful, joyful and loving memories that will encourage through the rest your lives.

"Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."

*Love,

“ Allen/Cathy/Susan

When I heard of the passing of Mrs Harrell my prayers went out to the family. Please know that our family is praying for you during this difficult time. Don't think of her as gone away her journey's just begun. Think of her as just resting from the sorrows and pain in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and year. Remember you shall meet her again. God will comfort you during this time.

“ I read of your loss and I offer encouragement and comfort from the Scriptures. God's Word assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. God promises a future when "death will be no more and "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (Revelation 21:3-5, John 5:28,29). Keep in mind...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Joshua 23:14.
