“ Reid family, you are on mind and in my prayers. I both mourn with you yet rejoice in sister Reid’s salvation. For our God is not the God of the dead, but of the living! May He comfort you with His presence, power, and promises.

I want to share a memory of your mom that I constantly talk about to this day. But before I do so let me just say that I was a pretty lonely teenage girl. Your father always made me feel welcome way before I begin fellowshipping at New Mount Olive, but it was your mother that made me feel so loved. She noticed me, ensuring me that I was not forgotten with only a touch. I thank God for His love manifested in her, for truly I was drawn to His light as it shined through her.

That precious little memory that tickles my heart so much is from a comment mother Reid made to me as she grabbed my right hand one afternoon after church. I recall her thumb caressing the back of my hand and then suddenly stop. She looked at me and said, “Sugar, your hand is so cold!” Jokingly, she then responded, “ Do you have a soul?” I simply smiled thinking to myself, “ Not only is she so pretty, but funny too!”

How grateful I am to have known her. Sister Reid will truly be missed by so many. In the words of Richard Smallwood, “ She didn’t pass. She only graduated before we did.” The LORD be with you sweet sis.
