“Uncle Lucious, there are no words to even describe the love we have for you. One of my earliest memories of you consists of you babysitting us and you falling asleep but telling us you were resting your eyes. As a child, I thought it was an actual thing. I have so many memories and I will cherish every last one. Thank you for always being a giving uncle and offering everything you had to us. Thank you for the talks we would have. You will forever be in our hearts. We will love you forever! - Trina, Fred and Brooke

“I could write a whole book about Lucious! Lucious was an architect, a builder of homes and businesses, but he was also a builder of men. He poured into everyone that he met. He was always willing to lend a hand without judgment or expectation of reciprocation. His love for people would shine through in whatever he did. He was my best friend and I will miss him greatly, but I believe in my heart, that he is now part of the everlasting and I will see him again one day.
