

Lucy Sandra Harper

January 23, 1943 - September 12, 2024

Mrs. Lucy Sandra Flemister Harper was born on January 23, 1943, to Deacon Percy Flemister, Jr., and Mother Sally Grace Bigby Flemister. She was the third of seven loving siblings. At an early age, she found Christ and united with Chapel First Missionary Baptist Church, where she worked faithfully until her passing as president of the Pastor's Aide Committee, Hospitality Committee, and Nursing Guild, and a member of the choir. At the tender age of twenty-one she joined in holy matrimony with the love of her life, Norris Harper, Sr., and to this exemplary and loving union, two children were born, Norris Dean Harper (Ivy) and Sabrina Latrece Harper-Murphy (Michael). As time progressed, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren were added to this marvelous family. She was also survived by siblings, Raymond Percy Flemister (Lakangela), Pinkie Annett Tyson, and Glenda Faye Britton (Waddell); nieces, nephews, and cousins; special friends, Lina Mosley and Carolyn Peebles; and numerous other friends. Throughout her adult life, Lucy was involved in the lives of a multitude of children. She was employed with the Atlanta Head Start Program, Kiddie City Nursery, and Marbut Nursey. She was also very active with the Youth Department at Chapel First Missionary Baptist Church. Her nieces and nephews were also most inspired by her ever-present smile and sage advice. Gregarious and charismatic, she was always Aunt Lucy.

“ The Hammonds family extends sincere condolences to the Harper and Flemister families. Mrs. Lucy was a dear childhood and adult friend of our mother the late Cleavie Mosley Hammonds. She was so sweet, kind and loving. We loved her dearly.

“ I will always remember Lucy, I first met Lucy at church, I was in the church choir with her at Chapel First Baptist Church. I remember when she worked at the Avondale Marta station at the book station. I use to stop to talk with her while waiting on my bus. I haven't seen her in years but she has always been a in my heart. I see Sabrina from time to time, love you both. You will truly be missed.
