“ To the family of Mrs. Lula Bell Hale Lynn, may God hold you in His care as you grieve the loss of your wife, mother, relative. I knew her as "Tiny" when we were growing up in Minter, Alabama, and attending Minter Union Elementary, then E. M. Brown High School in Carlowville. She and my brother Jesse Andrews were in the same grade. May her memories be a blessing for you in the years to come. (Patricia Andrews Tabois, Fort Lauderdale FL)

“ Betty McRae-- My fondest memory of Lula is playing softball with her for The Original Saint Philip Angels. if we were behind in an ending, we always knew when Lula got the ball in her hand it was 1 2 3 you were out. We could count on her always to bail us out. She was one of a kind and we loved her.

“ Dear Neighbor Don

Words will fail to express my deep sorrow for your loss. May God continue to cover your heart and your home. Your beautiful queen is resting at home watching over you.

Continue to hear her laughter, smell her scent, and see her smile. It is always a pleasure driving by your house to see the beautiful touches of Lula such as her beautiful holiday decorations.

“ Prior to our relocation from Bowie, Maryland to Lithonia, GA., and a phone call, we were introduced to Don through a Bowie Lowe’s employee. After actually arriving to the area, we met Don and he later introduced us to Lula. The four of us hit it off immediately and found out that as a couple, we had so much in common especially family and eating at good restaurants. They treated us to one of their favorite restaurants near Perimeter Mall and we never forgot how much they welcomed these newcomers to GA. Normally, it is much easier for men to form a friendship, but Lula’s personality allowed her to be an exception to the rule.

To Donald and Family, My Love and Prayers are with you after Lula accepts God welcoming her home. That smile and laugh will remain with us. That outstanding personality and wisdom will be remembered. I know that she used that one arm hinting skill to place her on that pitching mound in heaven. Lula will be remembered.
