“ Sister Lurlene. A strong woman of faith, and who loved the Lord. Allan (Tony) and I will miss you. I am going to miss your smiling face at church, as you would walk around and greet everyone, so elegantly dressed. I am going to miss your famous desserts ,and cake that you would unexpectedly bring by the house. Tony has so many memories of you Sister Gem as a child and young man growing up in Jamaica, and reconnecting here in Georgia. We will miss you very much. But you're free from pain and safe in the arms of our Lord. Our condolences to Uncle Edward, Edison, Sharon, Donald and the rest of the family. Dorothy and Allan Willacey.

“ Love and comfort to the family and everyone here. I would be honored to share a few words about our Lady.

She was truly a flower in all of our lives. A colorful and youthful spirit, she was so much fun! Growing up, I thought she was cooler than any other elder I had encountered. As I got older and heard more stories of her life, I KNEW she was cooler than any elder I would ever encounter.

She lived several lifetimes. All with style, and an unwavering faith in God. How blessed are we to have gotten a front row seat to all that blossoming?

She was the only person I thought pronounced Jamaica correctly, because everytime she spoke, it sounded like a song. She shared stories of her time with her siblings, riding motorcycles and horses bareback. All the while cracking jokes and shimmying in her living room. She took mission trips to different countries around the world, and encouraged all of us to travel. We are her seeds, and she is with us on every journey.

As a flower, she was fragrant and nourishing. This carried into the amazing dishes that she made. It didn't matter when you would visit, there would be some sorrel, Killhungry, or her (infamous) Orange Chicken close by. People have gotten in trouble over that Orange Chicken, and I would do it again.

She had magic powers with food, and plants. The family used to bring little twiglets of plants to Kings Hwy. Almost gone. Check back six weeks later, it's a full bush in the front yard. How?!

That was just her magic.

Like her plants, she could breathe life and style into anything. There were no carbon copies of anything that she owned. If she got her hands on it, best believe she would add her own spin to it and make it better. This was most expressed in her outfits. My goodness! It didn't matter where she was going-she was stunning, and forever coming for our edges. A legend.

She was both the flower and the master gardener. She poured into the soil of her family. She gave them light, and the courage to bloom. We will forever aspire to meet her standard, and that in itself is an honor. Love you Lady.

Ms Lurlene was a beautiful soul. So peaceful and calm. God had blessed her with such unique talents and I had planned to go back and see her to learn from her. But I missed that opportunity and I regret that very much. God's peace and comfort to the family during this difficult time.
