“ On behalf of Jane Alt Wilson, retired Dean of Students at Oakton Community College, we recall Luther's friendly smile, sense of humor, and most of all, his service as a Counselor and teacher to many Oakton students during his years at the College. (We also recall his deep commitment to public transportation and his encyclopedic knowledge of the Chicago metropolitan bus and train system!). We have missed him since his retirement to Georgia.

“ It's with deep sympathy that I express the veil in my heart due to the transition of Luther Dowdy. May God continue to strength the Dowdy Family and grant them mercy and peace during this most trying time.

“God makes no mistakes. Blessed be the name of the Lord.”

I only learned today (03/03/2025) from Oakton College at the death of Luther Dowdy. Immediately I pictured him surrounded by students with his wonderful reinforcing smile and his attitude of spreading sunshine and hope - that memory is 50+ years ago! He was a very special person and touched the lives of so many!
