“ Dea. Jackson was a wonderful, humble man. I remember him being a deacon at Greater Friendship when I was a little girl, and he was still attending after I was an adult. I'm wishing the family peace and comfort during this time.

“ Luther Jackson was a very loving man, he treasured his whole family, those of us near and far. Family Reunions were his passion, every year he and his wife were there until health prevented their attendance, even then he would want to know all about it. We here in DC will surely miss his smiling face and wise words. Rest on cousin Luther, we loved you but God loved you best. Your DC family.

“ Al, Gloria and the Jackson family. We know that Mr. Jackson's passing is so painful, but know his legacy will live on. You know he was a trailblazer in so many ways. You know he was and is a man of God, now with God. You know he is at peace now and forever more. He is and always has been a quiet rock. God bless you all today as you say goodbye. We love you,
