“ Very few people can say they loved their in-laws, but I can. Luther and I were friends while his brother and I were married and remained friends after the divorce. Luther was a kind, generous, thoughtful man who loved God and his family. This world will not be the same without him.
Love Always,

To my dear loving brother, you are the light of the Universe. You loved many and deeply. Your laughter could shake mountains. The world is better because of who you are, you footprints have left an eternal mark in the world. I love you and will miss you terribly. Words cannot express how grateful I was to have you in my life. Your laughter and joy will remain with us forever. We love you , you fought the good fight. I know that I will see you again brother and rejoice with you. You are a special person and love is what you did, the Angels in heaven have welcomed you with open arms. I will see you again, you now have rest. Peace be still.*

“ My uncle LJ truly cared about his family. He was the only one that tried his best to keep the family together. He was the only one in the family that would call and check up on you. He was definitely the peacemaker in our family and for that he will be truly missed for.

My fondest memory of him, was him paying for some of my modeling classes as a youth. He was once a model himself, so that's what we had in common. The fact that he believed in me meant the world to me and built my self confidence. I went on to do some modeling because of him and quite enjoyed it. I love him and will really miss him. Life just won't be the same without him, but he's definitely in a much better place now in heaven with his beautiful mother! 🙏❤️🌹

To my dear good friend, words cannot express the grief I have felt since your transition. The world is at a loss, yet heaven is rejoicing. Your journey has taken you to your final destination. Heaven is your home now, you are seated at the right hand of the Father. He says good and faithful servant, I welcome you to your mansion. I am blessed to have met you and experienced the love and joy that you brought to everyone you met. You are a gem and now your brilliance is shining from above, you are at peace now, rest in heaven my dear good friend.
