“ Luther was my brother-in-law, but so much more. He was one of my most respected teachers in high school; he was an English teacher who taught me to read beyond the comics. As my music teacher he encouraged a love of classical and jazz music and nudged me towards a music career. Luther was a mentor/advisor, and in many instances, my protector. Although we did not always see eye to eye (of course he never knew), I always took his advice to heart and, in hindsight, regretted not following through on some.

Luther will always have a place in my heart. I will cherish my fond memories of him, forever giving thanks for his inspiration and guidance.

“ Mr. Luther Stripling was one of the most dynamic individual that I have ever known. He was an awesome teacher. I am a better person because of his teachings that inspired me to develop a love of reading and poetry. May heaven be inspired with his baritone singing.
