

Lydio Kofi Campbell

February 2, 1934 - May 25, 2026

Born to Yetunde Phillips and Fredrick Campbell, Mr. Campbell lived a remarkable life marked by dedication, hard work and excellence. He began his professional career with Nestlé Nigeria Plc, where he rose to the position of District Sales Manager, earning the admiration of colleagues and associates alike for his professionalism and leadership. Following his distinguished career at Nestlé, he successfully transitioned into business as a distributor of Nestle Products covering Lagos and other states in the south west, continuing to build a legacy of enterprise, discipline and service.

On December 27, 1958, he married the love of his life, Mrs. Titilola A. Campbell (née Rhodes). Together, they built a home grounded in love, faith, respect and enduring family values a union blessed with children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren who remain a testament to their lifelong commitment to one another.

Daddy was a devoted husband, loving father, proud grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle, cousin and trusted friend. His life was one of quiet impact and noble character. He carried himself with humility and honour, leaving behind memories that will forever remain treasured by all who knew him.

Though our hearts are heavy with loss, we find comfort in knowing that he lived fully, loved deeply and left this world richer by his presence. We celebrate not only the years he lived, but the legacy he leaves behind one of love, wisdom, resilience and faith.
